NILS

Nils is a name that's been a stranger to the UK market and we're delighted to at last be able to offer this amazing women's only skiwear brand to our customers. Born out of a meeting 36 years ago between a Swede (Nils Andersson) holidaying in LA and a local girl (future wife Nancy) working at a Newport Beach ski shop, Nils is a beautiful culture clash of Swedish elegance and Californian sass. With amazing tailored fits, beautiful fabrics and opulent luxury goods styling, Nils skiwear will be an enticing proposition for many UK women skiers.
